BOAVISTA GOLF & SPA RESORT

Boavista Golf & Spa Resort, one of the Western Algarve's favourite 18-hole Championship coastal golf courses, lies in a prime location just west of the historic fishing town of Lagos and about 45 minutes from the Faro International Airport. exclusive 260 acre prestigious

The course opened in 2002 and the state-of-the-art Clubhouse and Essential Fitness & Health Spa opened in August 2007 offering unforgettable golf and leisure holidays in a spectacular setting.

Nearby Lagos has everything... where past meets present and sophistication jostles with a determined, inherent sense of history. Old cobbled streets contrast with the vibrant Yacht Marina and picturesque squares decked with restaurants and cafés provide enchanting boulevard dining with a wealth of international cuisine and entertainment to suit everyone.

Five minutes from Boavista is the town of Luz, which is a beautiful beach resort providing family waterfront activities and a delightful choice of seafront cafés and shops.

Inland are the hills of Monchique and on a clear day it may be possible to see Sagres yet another town steeped in history, home to Henry the Navigator's school of Navigation in the 15th century.

THE GOLF COURSE

The impressive course was designed by Howard Swan Msc, past president of The European Institute of Golf Course Architects, who has over 30 years' experience. His philosophy, to create a course as if it has always been there - has been sensitively applied to Boavista preserving, integrating and harmonizing with the area's natural beauty and terrain.

That the course is a delight to the eye is manifest all over the golf course at Boavista. Strategic planting of indigenous species of flowers, shrubs and trees is evident at every twist and turn. Coupled with the landscaper's art of blending all the elements of terrain, lakes, streams and other unique features make the course very attractive indeed.

Complimenting this without any human influence are the spectacular views from every hole, the impressive hills of Monchique to the North, the Algarvean coastline toward Sagres and the Atlantic Ocean to the west. Looking eastward lie the sparkling waters of the bay of Lagos. Each hole of the golf course offers a unique blend of all these elements. The first nine, in general, climb to the highest point of the resort, where a pause at the eighth tee will allow one to experience all of those views.

Subsequent holes descend to an area where water features, streams, lakes and arched bridges, reminiscent of landscaped gardens abound. There is also a faithful reproduction of the famous Swilken Bridge found at the 18th hole of St Andrews. Blending in to this are the villas, townhouses and apartments.

Design and colours have been carefully considered to enhance and compliment the resort as a whole – importantly none impinge on the enjoyment of the golf course. It's always difficult to name a signature hole but here it is almost impossible. The combination of design, location and the sheer variety of holes make playing Boavista a wonderful experience. This a golf course that has all the attributes to fulfil the expectations of all golfers irrespective of their playing ability.

THE ALGARVE

The Algarve is a region of outstanding natural beauty, with a stunning coastline of honey coloured cliffs, caves and grottos and endless white sandy beaches washed by a glistening azure ocean and Atlantic breezes. Towns and villages blend into a countryside, rich in orange and lemon groves, vines, figs and in early Spring, a mass of almond blossoms - unspoilt natural beauty.
